

I fly extensively (70 to 90 flights a year) and also use my cell phone quite frequently for business and personal purposes. Nevertheless, the quiet time during flight is one of my most treasured moments for reflection and serious writing. Please keep cell phones off during flight.